

Dear Friends,

Warm greetings. We trust the Lord has been keeping you well.

We continue to see the value of consistent investment in the lives of children and families, and we thank you for continuing to walk alongside us through your prayers, encouragement, and support.

Learning Beyond the Classroom

This month, the children also watched and discussed a documentary on child trafficking. With child protection concerns receiving increased national attention, the session provided an opportunity to raise awareness on personal safety, exploitation, and the importance of seeking help from trusted adults. Recent government data recorded 10,581 child protection cases between January 2025 and March 2026, including cases of abandonment, abduction, trafficking, and missing children, underscoring the importance of equipping children with knowledge and awareness.

Vocational Training Spotlight

We are encouraged by the progress of one of our beneficiaries who continues to pursue vocational training in culinary arts. With a growing passion for pastry making, she is steadily developing both her skills and confidence, demonstrating how practical training can open doors to future opportunities and self-reliance.

Showcasing Skills and Enterprise

This month, we participated in a sale where we showcased a variety of woodwork products and crafts produced through our Economic Empowerment Program. The event provided an opportunity to engage with the community, promote our work, and generate income to support ongoing program activities.

We are grateful for everyone who visited our stand and supported the initiative, encouraging us as we continue to grow this social enterprise model.

Educate A Child – Investing in the Future

Education remains at the heart of our work in transforming the lives of children and families. Through consistent support, we aim to ensure that every child is enrolled, retained, and able to thrive in school.

Through our Educate A Child initiative, you can partner with us in providing school fees, learning materials, tuition support, and other essential educational needs that help children stay in school and reach their full potential.
